STARTING POINT

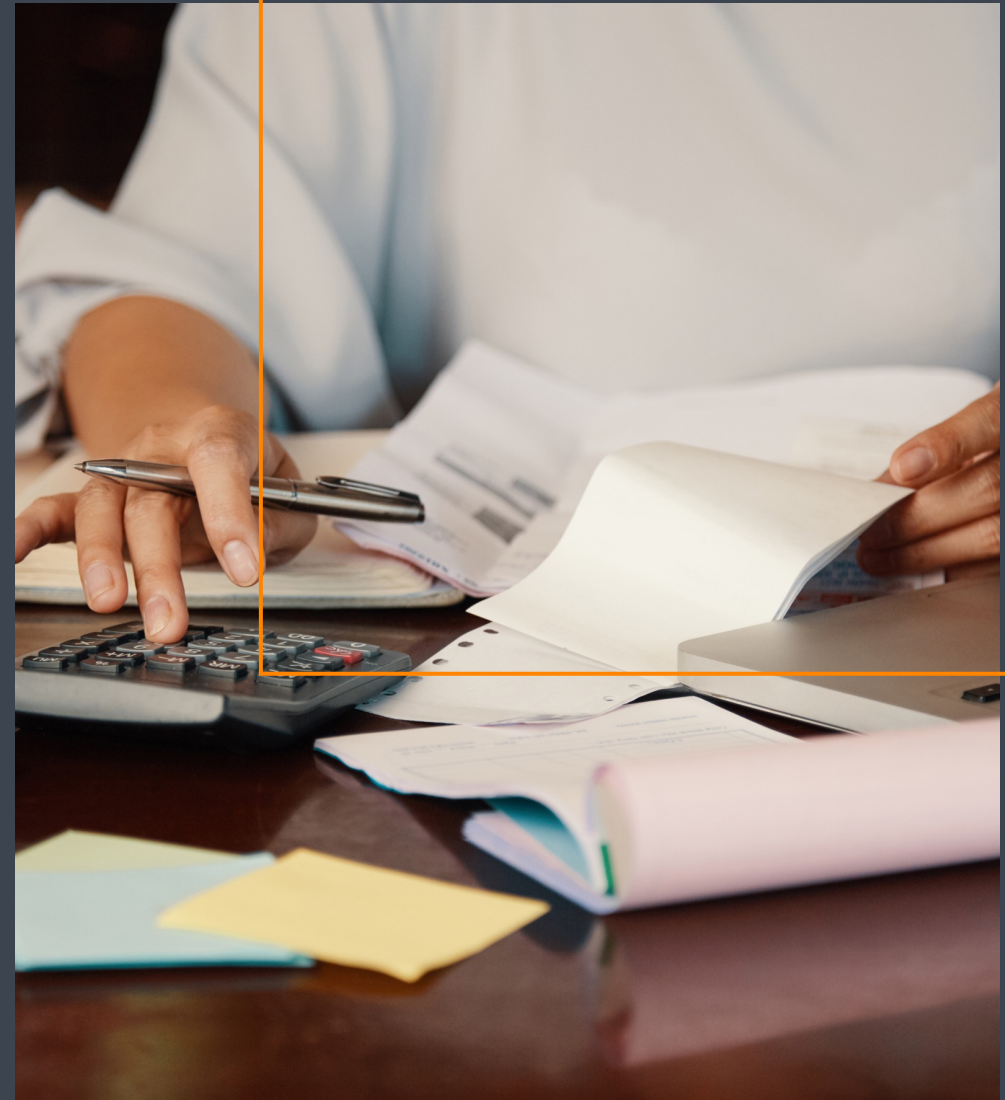

SITUATION

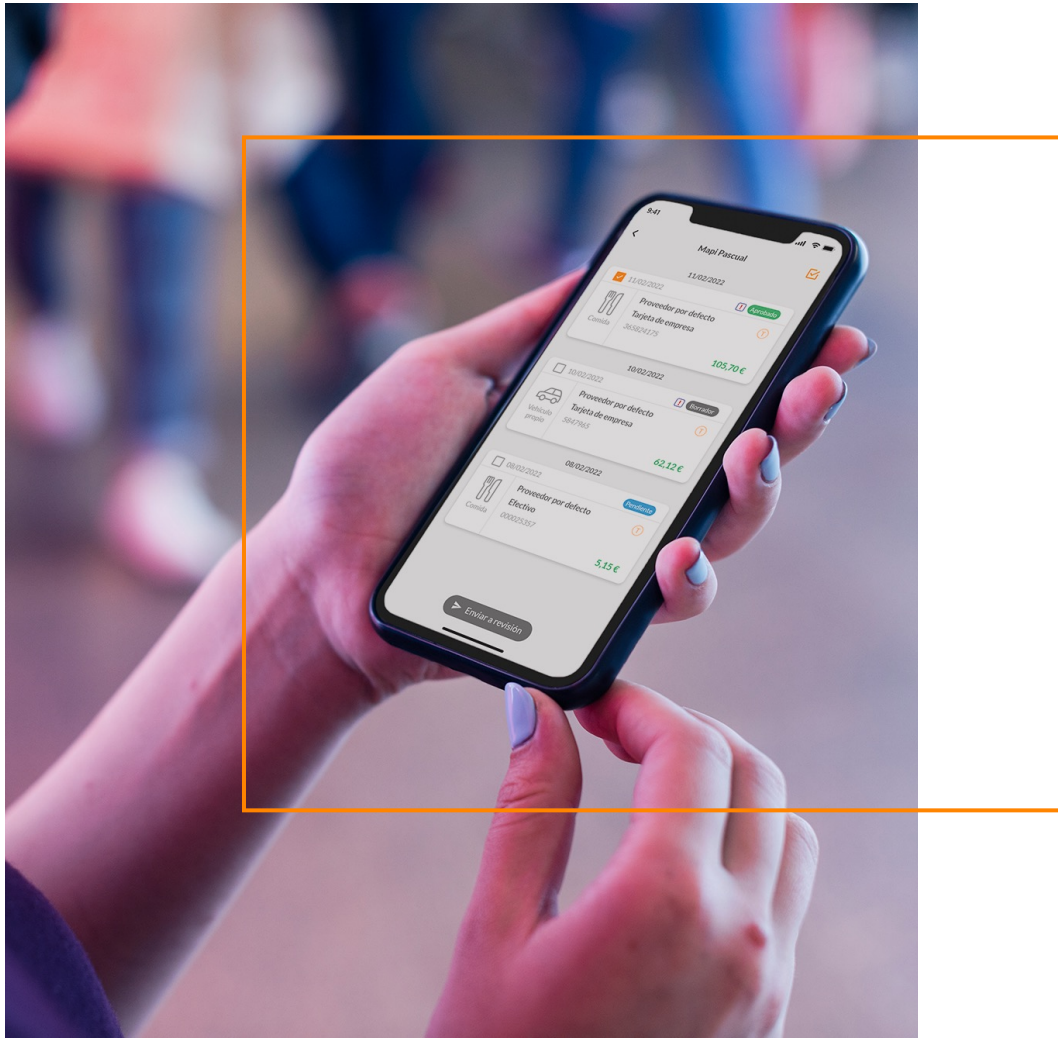

Tickets and invoices management through the courier service between different locations.

CONSEQUENCE

- High administrative costs due to manual tasks.
- Difficulty in physically delivering the supporting documents as they need to be transported.
- Too much time spent on manual tasks.
- Manual scanning of all tickets to be registered in the system.

PROJECT GOALS

Avoid sending tickets from one office to another by parcel post.

Be able to allocate expenses to projects using drop-down menus.

Save time by avoiding scanning.

Saving on cost overruns by avoiding sending them by courier.

"XPENDOR has made easier for us to process expenses thanks to its software and speed of use. It makes our employees life easier by being intuitive and instantaneous".

Manager at Isemaren

"The App has the option of observation fields and drop-down fields. Therefore, the Administration doesn't have to ask to which projects the expenditure should be charged, because they select the projects themselves, thus facilitating the administrative work".
