STARTING POINT

SITUATION

Manual management of a large amount of corporate expenses, which requires a major investment.

CONSEQUENCE

- High administrative cost due to manual tasks.
- Difficulty in physically delivering the supporting documents as they need to be printed.
- Large amount of time spent on manual tasks.

PROJECT GOALS

Digitalisation and optimisation of cost management.

Quick document Reading.

Saving time spent on reviewing expenses.

Better control and analysis of expenses.

Generation of alerts and reports included in the application.

Automatical information recognition thanks to intelligent OCR.

"XPENDOR has helped us to improve the process by understanding our problems and providing the necessary solutions. After implementing the solution in Spain and Portugal, we have rolled out it to other countries of the company such as Belgium, Holland and France. It has been very fast and comfortable for the whole team".

Marta Laso. Iberia's Productivity Director

"The application is evolving and incorporating new functionalities every quarter, which arise from our suggestions and those of other customers. Making us part of a increasingly complete and adapted to our new needs solution".

Elena López. IT Europe Enterprise's Applications Director
